

Corporate Communications Manager

Obducat is looking for a self-motivated communications manager with experience handling both internal and external communication. The ideal candidate will be eager to take on the challenges of raising awareness and creating content that supports the growth of Obducat. Top candidates will be skilled at creating content that both keeps stockholders informed about the progress in the company as well as engages employees. The ability to communicate effectively in written and oral communications is a must.

Description of the position

As Corporate Communications Manager, you will be responsible for all activities in the Obducat Group, including its subsidiaries.

You will take an active role and drive the external as well as internal communications responsibility with the clear target to meet deadlines and targeted performance and requirement levels. You will report to the Management Group.

The position will encompass the following work tasks:

- Manage internal as well as external communication activities
- Assist in developing the company's IR- and PR strategy
- Budget responsibility for decided IR/PR activities
- Manage the corporate webpage and digital presence
- Create and manage release dates for recurring publications
- Actively build the communication network to ensure a high level of target audience reach
- Contribute in increasing visibility and recognition in relevant investment communities
- Support the other functions with relevant and from time-to-time requested editorial support
- Assist in producing the company's regulated external information, such as Press releases, Annual- and quarterly reports
- Drive and further develop internal communication channels
- Contribute in the production and development of marketing materials and events

Qualifications and skills

- Strong communication skills
- Capability in organizational skills and ability to meet deadlines
- Demonstrated ability to use social media channels effectively to deliver marketing content
- Experience creating targeted content that generates result
- At least 5 years of experience in Marketing, Communications or similar field
- Bachelor's degree required

Miscellaneous

Start date: According to agreement

Type of employment: Full time employment

Place of employment: Lund, Sweden

Please send you application to info@obducat.com.